

Literary Analysis Writing Task

In order to demonstrate your understanding of the use of dystopia in Ender's Game, you will write an analytical essay on the topic. Please read through this page thoroughly as it will help you to succeed in both your essay and socratic seminar.

Objectives:

- ❖ Analyze the use of dystopian characteristics and its impact on the development of a narrative. (RL.8.2)
- ❖ Write a well-structured literary analysis, using evidence from the text -- Ender's Game-- to formulate a thesis supported by adequate evidence from the text (W.8.9).

Prompts: Please choose only one of the following prompts.

1. One theory of dystopian novels is that authors are making a critique of society. What is the critique of society that Card is making in Ender's Game? Identify and analyze the social critique within the text.
2. Choose two-three characteristics of dystopia as discussed in class. Analyze how they are used, and explain their significance.
3. Compare Ender's Game to another dystopian novel. Identify and analyze the use of two dystopian characteristics, and argue which novel is more effective.

Length: 750-1000 words, double-spaced, MLA formatting.

Other notes:

- You will be given resources on how to properly write a literary analysis. Use them. You are responsible for making sure this is done properly and for reading the resources provided.
- Use proper MLA citations and MLA formatting.
- Plagiarism, as always, will not be tolerated, and will result in a grade of zero. Plagiarism includes submitting any length of work as your own, which is NOT your own.
- Make good use of any time provided in class. Your teacher is a valuable resource — ask questions!

Deadlines to follow:

Essay assigned	Thursday, 13 December
Essay outline	Monday, 17 December
First draft	Wednesday, 2 January
Final submission	Wednesday, 9 January